DISCLOSURE OF IMPROPER GOVERNMENTAL ACTION

NRS 281.661 requires the Director of the Department of Personnel to provide each State officer and employee, on an annual basis, a summary of the statutes pertaining to disclosure of improper governmental action (NRS 281.611 through 281.671).

These statutes prohibit any State officer or employee from using his or her official authority or influence to prevent disclosure of improper governmental action by another State officer or employee.

"Improper governmental action" is defined in NRS 281.611 as...

"...any action taken by a state officer or employee in the performance of his official duties, whether or not the action is within the scope of his employment, which is:

- (a) In violation of any state law or regulation;
- (b) An abuse of authority;
- (c) Of substantial and specific danger to the public health or safety; or
- (d) A gross waste of public money."

Per NRS 281.631(2), "use of 'official authority or influence' includes taking, directing others to take, recommending, processing or approving any personnel action such as an appointment, promotion, transfer, assignment, reassignment, reinstatement, restoration, reemployment, evaluation or other disciplinary action."

NRS 281.641 affords a State officer or employee who discloses information concerning improper governmental action a hearing before a State Personnel Hearing Officer if any reprisal or retaliatory action is taken against him within two years following the disclosure. The appeal must be submitted in writing on the NPD-53 form, Request for Hearing, under the provisions of NRS 281.641, which is available from the Department of Personnel or an agency's personnel representative. This properly completed form must be filed with the Hearing Officer within 10 working days after the alleged reprisal or retaliatory action takes place.

Finally, these statutes specifically encourage any State officer or employee to disclose improper governmental action to the extent not expressly prohibited by law. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature to protect the rights of a State officer or employee who makes such a disclosure.

A copy of these statutes may be obtained by contacting your department/division head or the Department of Personnel.

NRS 281.641 Reprisal or retaliatory action against state officer or employee who discloses improper governmental action: Written appeal; hearing; order; negative ruling may not be based on identity of persons to whom disclosure was made; rules of procedure.

1. If any reprisal or retaliatory action is taken against a state officer or employee who discloses information concerning improper governmental action within 2 years after the information is disclosed, the state officer or employee may file a written appeal with a hearing officer of the department of personnel for a determination of whether the action taken was a reprisal or retaliatory action. The written appeal must be accompanied by a statement that sets forth with particularity:

(a) The facts and circumstances under which the disclosure of improper governmental action was made; and

(b) The reprisal or retaliatory action that is alleged to have been taken against the state officer or employee.

The hearing must be conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in NRS 284.390 to 284.405, inclusive, and the procedures adopted by the personnel commission pursuant to subsection 4.

2. If the hearing officer determines that the action taken was a reprisal or retaliatory action, he may issue an order directing the proper person to desist and refrain from engaging in such action. The hearing officer shall file a copy of his decision with the governor or any other elected state officer who is responsible for the actions of that person.

3. The hearing officer may not rule against the state officer or employee based on the person or persons to whom the improper governmental action was disclosed.

4. The personnel commission may adopt rules of procedure for conducting a hearing pursuant to this section that are not inconsistent with the procedures set forth in NRS 284.390 to 284.405, inclusive.

5. For the purposes of this section, "reprisal or retaliatory action" includes:

(a) The denial of adequate personnel to perform duties;

(b) Frequent replacement of members of the staff;

(c) Frequent and undesirable changes in the location of an office;

(d) The refusal to assign meaningful work;

(e) The issuance of letters of reprimand or evaluations of poor performance;

(f) A demotion;

(g) A reduction in pay;

(h) The denial of a promotion;

(i) A suspension;

(j) A dismissal;

(k) A transfer;

(l) Frequent changes in working hours or workdays; or

(m) If the employee is licensed or certified by an occupational licensing board, the filing with that board, by or on behalf of the employer, of a complaint concerning the employee, if such action is taken in whole or in part, because the state officer or employee disclosed information concerning improper governmental action.

NAC 281.305 Written appeal by officer or employee who claims retaliatory action was taken against him.

1. A state officer or employee who claims a reprisal or retaliatory action was taken against him for disclosing information concerning improper governmental action may file a written appeal pursuant to NRS 281.641 with a hearing officer in the department of personnel. The appeal must be:

(a) Filed within 10 workdays after the date the alleged reprisal or retaliatory action took place.

(b) Submitted on a form provided by the department of personnel.

2. The hearing officer may reject a form that is incomplete or otherwise deficient as insufficient to commence the appeal.
